RF payment code guide

Anatolia College provides you with the option to pay using an RF payment code. The RF payment code is a unique, 25-digit code that allows payments to be completed through credit transfer without use of IBAN.

The RF payment code is sent by email before the registration period and remains the same throughout the student's study at the same division (Elementary, High School, IB).

Note: The remaining methods of tuition payment (deposit, credit card, cash) are still available.

Please find instructions on payment using your RF code.
